DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on May 15, 2008 has been entered.

Double Patenting

2. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

3. The Examiner notes that in the previously mailed remarks, Applicant has indicated that at the time of the final disposition of the pending claims is determined appropriate Terminal Disclaimers can be filed. The Examiner asserts however that until a Terminal Disclaimer is filed the rejections remain pending and thus have been maintained for the reasons of record.

4. Claims 1-5 and 10-15 remain provisionally rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-32 and 42-50 of copending Application No. 10/606137, for the reasons given in the previous Office Action, mailed June 30, 2004

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

5. Claims 11-15 remain rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-9 of U.S. Patent No. 6989167, for the reasons given in the previous Office Action, mailed June 30, 2004.

This rejection had previously been made over claims 1-14 of copending Application No. 10/603978, which has now been issued as U.S. Patent No. 6989167.

Art Unit: 1794

Nevertheless, the rejection is taken as previously cited under the provisional double patenting rejection of record.

Allowable Subject Matter

6. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: the closest prior art, Elder et al.(US 20040058054) has been overcome by the filing of the declaration by Teras et al. on May 15, 2008 and in light of the cancellation of claims 1-13 of the subsequently issued patent to Elder et al. (US 7037540) as a result of the judgment by the Board of Patent Appeals and Interferences that Zyzak et al. "was both first to conceive and first to reduce to practice the subject matter of the count" and that "priority of invention lies with" Zyzak et al. Furthermore, it is noted that food products comprised of corn are claimed in claim 53 of Application No. 10/606137.
